

Draft 6 Hierarchy of Outcomes for QAHC

Health outcomes	Prevention of HIV, STI and Hep C infections in Gay Men / Men who have Sex with Men
Performance Indicators	Reduced incidence of new HIV, other STIs and Hep C diagnoses. Gay men report satisfying sex lives.
	↑			↑			↑
Health behaviour outcomes	Reduced incidence of unsafe sexual and drug use practices			Gay men utilise post-exposure prophylaxis when needed			Gay men access HIV and sexual health services, resulting in earlier diagnosis and treatment of HIV, other STIs and Hep C. Reduced community HIV viral load
Performance Indicators	Social research shows: reduced UAI with casual partners reduced UAI with serodiscordant partners negotiated safety in relationships reduced sharing injecting equipment			Qld Health records of PEP usage and outcomes			Social research shows higher incidence and frequency of testing. SHS records show higher proportion of new diagnoses are recent infections. Higher proportion of HIV positive men have undetectable viral load
	↑		↑		↑		↑		↑
Health promotion outcomes	Gay men value and respect themselves and others	Gay men are aware of the risks of HIV, STIs and Hep C transmission for themselves and others	Gay men know how to prevent transmission of HIV, STIs & Hep C	Gay men have skills for negotiating and implementing safe sexual and drug use practices	Gay men have access to prevention technologies eg condoms, lube	Gay men are aware of the availability and use of PEP	Gay men are aware of relevant services and are able to access them	Services are gay friendly and actively promoted to gay men	Community organisations & networks are able to respond to HIV, Hep C & STIs issues
Performance Indicators	Social research shows positive self esteem	Social research, other feedback shows realistic perceptions of risk	Social research shows good knowledge	Social research, group work feedback show good skills	Social research shows access, availability at sites of sex	Social research shows awareness	Social research, group feedback indicates awareness	Services have good policies, resources Gay men report good service	Gay men report safe sex norm. Audit of community capacity.
	↑		↑		↑		↑		↑
Health promotion activities	Promotion of awareness within gay communities	Promotion of safe sex culture at beats, gay websites, SOPVs, other gay scenes	Provision of information, support and resources to individuals	Promotion of proactive, gay friendly services network	Promotion of gay-friendly healthy public policy and general community environment	Building the capacity of communities to support gay men
Examples	Campaigns and information resources Presence at gay community events Presence in gay community media Work with gay social groups	Work with SOPVs on SS policy, condoms, lube access. Outreach to beats, gay chatrooms, venues. SOPV/beat workshop	Ongoing group work and weekend retreats Individual counselling Information resources Social connection opportunities	Work with relevant agencies to reduce discrimination and promote culturally appropriate services & referrals, access to condoms, lube, N&S	Work with Qld Health policy bureaucrats to better meet gay needs. Work with media, police, schools and other community agencies to reduce homophobia and anti-gay discrimination	Support and resource gay groups and organisations Sponsor gay events Facilitate and resource social groups Assist production of newsletters Provide training Address prejudice within community			